

LAF HEALTH CERTIFICATE FOR EXPORT OF RESEARCH RODENTS TO MACAU

I IDENTIFICATION OF THE ANIMALS

Identification	Species	Number	Sex	Age	Color	Strain

Total number of animals: _____

II ORIGIN OF THE ANIMALS

a. Name and address of the consignor:

b. Scheduled date of shipment and port of embarkation (if known):

III DESTINATION OF THE ANIMALS

a. Name and address of the consignee:

b. Scheduled date and port of arrival (if known):

CERTIFICATION STATEMENTS

The animals have been purpose-bred, maintained and supervised at the Laboratory Animal Facility at HKUST and meet all the following:

- A. The animals are overseen by the Attending Veterinarian on a routine basis to ensure the wellbeing, feeding, hygiene, general husbandry and animal welfare are appropriate.
- B. LAF prevents the intrusion of wild rodents and other unwanted animals.
- C. All animals are confirmed healthy before being introduced into LAF.
- D. Regular microbiological testing is performed in accordance with the testing protocol.
- E. All animals have been stored in a closed, hygienic environment.
- F. The animals were purpose-bred in captivity.
- G. The animals were born in a breeding establishment and have been permanently kept in captivity in the exporting country/ were born in a breeding establishment and have been permanently kept in a supplying establishment.
- H. The animals do not come from, or have been in contact with, other animals either from a region or holding on which rabies or suspicion of rabies has been present within the last 6 months, or from a facility or centre which has been under quarantine or any other restrictive measures for animal health reasons.
- I. The animals proceed from a facility or centre where no animals showed any clinical signs or suspicion of being infected with myxomatosis, tularaemia, rabbit haemorrhagic disease or other infectious and contagious disease to which the species is susceptible to.
- J. The mice have been examined on this date by the Attending Veterinarian as dated on this document and have been deemed free of any clinical signs associated with infectious diseases, including external parasites.
- K. Laboratory

Laboratory Animal Facility (CWB) - Dr. Dawn Ngai

Name of issuing institutional and Attending Veterinarian

Signature of Attending Veterinarian

Date